

About The IMS Group

IMS is a professional financial services consulting and support group focused solely on the asset management and securities industry. IMS comprises of 6 core service areas, all of which were developed in response to our clients' needs for practical solutions to their business needs.

Today, IMS employs more than 60 experienced professionals who support more than 650 investment businesses. Our asset management and securities sector focus on the securities market place means we always bring direct, relevant experience to advising our clients.

Our services

IMS's service offering is as follows;

Regulation and Compliance: The UK's market leading regulatory compliance consulting team for the asset management and securities industries.

Accounting and tax: A joint venture between IMS and Buzzacott LLP which offers audit, accounting & taxation and administration services to the FSA regulated sector.

Portfolio Risk Management: This investment risk management solution enables firms to access the highest levels of risk management expertise without the usual increase in salary bill.

Hosted Regulatory Permissions: The ultimate flexible regulatory licensing solution, Mirabella (Reg no. 415559) enables firms to quickly operate under a regulatory licence by extending its own regulatory permissions to its clients.

Education and Training: In-house and on-site industry leading regulatory compliance training.

Recruitment: Retained search and contingency services within wholesale asset management & securities industries.

Our clients

We have substantial experience in each of the wholesale sectors in which we operate and boast a wide range of clients in each sector. Our clients range from some of the largest global firms to the smallest start-ups in the following areas:

- Institutional & Pension Fund Management
- Hedge Fund Managers & Fund of Funds
- Private Equity & Venture Capital Funds
- Wealth Management & Family Offices
- Corporate Finance & Advisory
- Brokers & Investment Banks

Our approach

We are a client led and not a product based business. We understand that even firms which operate in the same field of business will nevertheless have their own style, objectives and culture. We therefore take a flexible approach in responding to clients' needs, whilst at the same time operating within a disciplined framework.

We are totally committed to matching our skills and expertise to the most rigorous of client service standards. We owe our success to this commitment.

For further information please contact Stephen Burke (stephen.burke@theimgroup.co.uk).